Location: Mozes and Aäron church,
Waterlooplein 207, Amsterdam

Date: February 7, 2026

Time: 16.30

A musical journey across three centuries, featuring orchestra and organ pieces highlighting the exceptional Moses en Aaronkerk romantic Organ. The program consists of selected movements from Bach's Third Orchestral Suite arranged for strings, including the touching Air, followed by the monumental Poulenc's Organ Concerto and the heart wrenching Adagio from Mahler's Tenth Symphony. An evening full of contrasts and emotions.

Soundwave Collective is reintroducing regular concerts at the church, honoring the historic role of the orchestra and choir Zelus Pro Domo Dei. The building hosted events attended by important composers such as Camille Saint-Saëns, Franz Liszt and Pierre Boulez. Waterlooplein Concerts aims Tradition and emotion meet in an evening of beauty and reflection. to revitalize the Mozes en Aäron Church as a centre of musical and cultural activities. The project seeks to establish the Moses and Aaron Church as a cultural meeting place in the heart of Amsterdam.
